School Readiness Colors Forms—four-year-old reporting form (children who are in the 4yo class or Kindergarten class according to Teaching Strategies GOLD).

4) Cognition and General Knowledge

b) Children learn and begin to use science concepts

i) Benchmark 1 – Children will recognize and name colors. Four year-olds will name 8 basic colors (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, brown and black).

(1) F: 25% of children recognize and name colors

(2) W: An additional 25% of children recognize and name colors

(3) 15% of children recognize and name colors

Enter the child's name and the date that they named the color for assessment.

Center_____ Teacher_____ School Year _____

Child's name	Red	Orange	Yellow	Green	Blue	Purple	Brown	Black

School Readiness Colors Forms—three-year-old reporting form (children who are in the 3yo class according to Teaching Strategies GOLD).

4) Cognition and General Knowledge

b) Children learn and begin to use science concepts

i) Benchmark 1 – Children will recognize and name colors. Three year-olds will point to identify the six primary and secondary colors (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple)

(1) F: 25% of children recognize and name colors

(2) W: An additional 25% of children recognize and name colors

(3) 15% of children recognize and name colors

Enter the child's name and the date that they pointed to the correct color when requested. If they named the color enter a N next to the date.

Center_____ Teacher_____ School Year _____

Child's name	Red	Orange	Yellow	Green	Blue	Purple	Brown	Black

School Readiness Colors Forms—two-year-old reporting form

4) Cognition and General Knowledge

b) Children learn and begin to use science concepts

i) Benchmark 1 – Children will recognize and name colors. Two year olds will point to identify three colors.

(1) F: 25% of children recognize and name colors

(2) W: An additional 25% of children recognize and name colors

(3) 15% of children recognize and name colors

Enter the child's name and the date that they pointed to the correct color when requested. If they named the color enter a N next to the date.

Center_____ Teacher_____ School Year _____

Child's name	Red	Orange	Yellow	Green	Blue	Purple	Brown	Black